Dear Brundall Website Viewers,

My name is Ellie and if you see that I have written 5O or 5B, I am talking about the Year 5 classes at Brundall School. And if you read mocktails, they are the non alcoholic drinks that we made.

So, it all started before Christmas when we came out of the church and Mr Odell told us that the school was going to shut down because the heating broke and we wouldn't be able to have our Christmas party so we had to have it as a new year party instead.

At 1:45 we all got dressed up in our party clothes. 2:00pm was when the party started and we played sock wars where you have to keep your bum on the floor and try to get the other person's socks off. Then we played musical bumps.

At 2:40 we played a chocolate game where you have to put a pair of gloves on a cut pieces of chocolate off.

After that we had some food and some drinks, a ball game and a party bag.

At 3:30 we went home.
